

The EU Port directive obliges ports to provide adequate port reception facilities, ships delivering waste in the port and recommends a cost recovery system as an incentive.

Access2Sea aims to improve the attractiveness of the Atlantic shore for aquaculture by enabling new business opportunities and providing sustainable access.