

1 Please tell me what you consider to be the differences between the professional role you currently hold and the one for which you are taking this selection

2 Can you tell me the differences between hard skills and soft skills?

3 What are the key soft skills that a legal officer should possess?

4. Integrity and ethics

You are informally asked to expedite a case without the necessary prerequisites. How do you react? What do impartiality and transparency in public administration mean to you? How would you handle a potential conflict of interest?